“ Hate to hear the passing of Vivian. Such a smart and blessing lady to be around. I took her home several times from our DAR meeting in Flower Mound. May she RIP.

“ I was amazed at all the things that Aunt Vivian knew. I remember vividly all the memories that we made. They give me peace and comfort.

She helped me make my first banana pudding...lol Oh what fun that was, especially when we were cleaning up and found the UNSLICED bananas laying on the kitchen counter. What a laugh we had...lol

She and Uncle Chester got a small dachshund. My sister and I ended up naming it Hushpuppy, because it cried all the way home. Aunt Vivian taught me how to swim. I have to agree I was not a very good pupil, but I learned enough that I could tread water and make it back to the edge of the pool.

Aunt Vivian was full of life. Sometime she would send me a trinket from a country they were visiting and then tell us stories about the trips she and Uncle Chester took.

She will be missed.

“ May Vivian rest in peace!
Vivian was a great woman, wise, understanding, helpful. I remember especially when she invited me to meet for coffee to show me the mountain I saw was just a molehill.
Vivian was a dedicated member of North Texas Women's Club (the former Greater Lewisville Newcomers Club), filling a variety of roles for several years. She could be counted on to keep her commitments.
I will miss her calm approach, that got to the essence of an issue with the the grace of a lady.

“ Vivian was a force to be reckoned with, a natural born leader, and a lifelong learner Vivian started our NTWC afternoon book club quite awhile ago considering I've been a member since 2013. She was very physically and mentally active, and I always enjoyed her company. I'm glad I had a couple really good recent visits with her. Condolences to her family and all her many friends. May Vivian Rest In Peace. We loved her and will miss her.

“ I chose a yellow candle to honor Vivian. She has been a bright pillar of knowledge, light and sharing throughout my knowing her through Newcomers Club. Her zest for gardening & life in general was amazing. Vivian always shared her knowledge with enthusiasm. She will be missed by many...
Rest in peace Vivian.
