He was born Nov. 21, 1932 in the Sweet Gum community and lived in Rusk County all his life. Don's educational profession was driven by his parent's focused influence. He completed high school in Minden, 1951. One of his honors in high school happened in 1948 when he was a winner of Livestock Showmanship at the State Fair in Dallas. He caught his first calf at the Houston Stock Show. His love for agriculture was again rewarded in 1949 by receiving the highest honor in Texas to attend the National 4-H Congress in Chicago. As his youth advanced, he began spending many hours in the gym dribbling a basketball. His basketball career started for the Minden Tigers where he earned the reputation as a basketball competitor. He played point guard for Texas A & M for four years. In 1975 he received his Master's Degree and Superintendent's Certification from Stephen F. Austin State University. Don received honors throughout his life. He played basketball all over South America, (Chili, Peru, and Ecuador) as a Goodwill Ambassador for Tennessee Oil Company. After leaving the court in competitions, Don turned to basketball officiating. He officiated for twenty-five years, being the youngest official ever selected to be in the Southwest Conference. Don's teaching profession started in Houston in 1954 at Shady Dell Elementary, moving to Smiley High School as basketball coach. Since that time, he coached at Laneville High School, Argentina, S.A., Cushing ISD, and Mt. Enterprise. He completed his public education at Carlisle ISD with 27 years as Carlisle's Elementary Principal. After completing 40 years in public school, he worked for Stephen F. Austin State University for 12 years as a student teacher supervisor. Since retirement, Don and Brenda worked in Yellowstone National Park. Their love for travel and adventure continued throughout his retirement. Don was a devoted family man and a good Christian. He was a member of Minden Baptist all his life where he taught Young Couples Sunday Class and filled many other needed capacities within the church. His love for God, family, grandchildren, and others was demonstrated by his actions. He was preceded in death by his parents, Tobe and Merline Moon; and grandson, Andrew Moon. Survivors include his wife of 47 years, Brenda Moon of Minden; two sons, Donny Moon and wife Ashlie of Winnfield, La, and Toby Moon and wife Wendy of Minden; four grandchildren, Nate Moon, Avery Moon, Emily Moon, and McKenna Moon. “ Dear Mrs. Moon and family.....We were so sad to hear about Mr. Moon's passing. He was principal to 4 of our 6 daughters who have graduated from Carlisle. When he retired, I begged him to please stay just a few more years so our youngest, Ashley, would have the opportunity to have him as principal longer.....but, he said "it was time" and so we missed him for the rest of those years. Everytime we would see him, usually at Wal-Mart, he always asked about our girls, calling them by name and always being so proud of their accomplishments. I'll bet it took him three times longer to get out of Wal-Mart than any other customer because of all his Carlisle friends stopping him to visit "just a minute". I can honestly say that I have never met a man who I felt more respect for than Don Moon. He never forgot a student and loved each and everyone of them. He nicknamed my Catherine (Conn), now McCasland, "Katrina" and I still sometimes call her by his pet name for her. He was a special man to all who ever got to spend even a few minutes with him. Such a good, good man. I know you all will miss him so much more than we all will but I am so thankful that we came to Carlisle ISD in January of 1984 and got to have have him as our girl's principal. Just knowing we won't get to run into him at Wal-Mart again saddens me greatly. There just aren't too many around like him any more. May God help you though this sad time of loss but keep smiling....because Mr. Moon would want you to do that. May he rest in peace until we all get to see him again. God Bless You.....Nancy and Curt Curtis, Aimee Conn Myers, Catherine Conn McCasland, Amanda Curtis Henson, Sara Curtis and Ashley Curtis

“ What a Prince Don Moon was! He always encouraged us to do what is right, noble and honorable in every area of our lives. He, not only was a educator & in the public school system but also taught everyone within his reach by his excellent example of living everyday of his life. I know when I get to Heaven Don will be standing there saying, "Well, I'll say, What took you so long?" He was truly the very best of Minden and will be missed and his antics will be talked about for years to come.

He was more than a principal to me, he spoke to me like a father to a daughter. Anywhere I ever seen him over the years in passing he always knew who I was. He never forgot his students. We always gave each other a hug and he always asked about my children when we talked. Mr. Moon will be dearly missed by many and will always have a special place in my heart.
