“ Hey to my G-Ma!! I know that you are enjoying having Aunt Rita there with you now, and I know that you having been loving on her since she got there and I can just see that beautiful smile of yours since your sis is there with you now. Now, all of you can enjoy each other without any pain or suffering! Although, I miss you everyday, I am thankful to know that you are smiling down on us everyday and watching over us. Thanksgiving was nice this year but, of course not the same as going to Piccadilly with you and Mrs. Nada. We did have a great one though. I was thinking that it has been so long since I wrote in your book, and I am so sorry, but you know that I think of you all the time. I miss seeing your beautiful smile and hearing your wonderful laugh. Have a wonderful Christmas with all of your siblings! We are sending lots of love, smiles, hugs and kisses to you and everyone else in Heaven!! Love you Grandma, Lots and lots! Your shortest and oldest grandkid, Kristie Love ya lots and lots,

“ Hey Grandma! I can't believe that it has already been a year that we went to Texas to lay you to rest. My how time flies, just as it did when you were here with us. It seems like we didn't have enough time with you, but I know that you are enjoying every benefit that HEAVEN has to offer! Including and especially, being of your right mind and knowing everyone again, WOW that must be so wonderful for you! I am so blessed to have had the honor to be with you for your last few years and you know your little buddy Chris, he talks about you often and he remembers you and always will because ya'll had a bond like no other! Destin is doing so much better! He and I talk about you, MaMaw, and Andre, and our other loved ones, up there playing cards, eating chicken, fishing and all kinds of other fun things! Your memory lives on my sweet G-MA, and it always will! Keep smiling down on us, until we get to see that beautiful smile again!! Love and miss you lots and lots!! Sending you lots and lots of hugs and kisses..... Your oldest and sweetest (He He) G-Kid, Kristie

“ Happy Mother's Day, Mother - Kristie, the boys, Zack and his family and I went to church today and out to eat at Piccadilly for Mother's Day. You used to love to go there, and we ate a piece of chocolate pie for you! I know you have all the pie Heaven has to offer, but though you were with us in our hearts, your earthly presence was missed. I talked to Cathy yesterday, and I know she wishes you and Aunt Mae the very best of Mother's Days! You both, with all your sisters and your Mother, were celebrating Mother's Day at God's table. We are thankful for that and that you are able to watch us from God's Heavenly Perch! I love you! Connie

“ Hey my dear sweet Grandma- I wanted to say Hi to you! I always talk to you in my prayers and I know that you hear me! I am so glad you now feel no pain and you know that when ever you need something you can ask and you will receive! Oh how I miss your beautiful smile! And you know what I realized, Charles, Connie(my beautiful ma), and my kiddos, among others including me too, inherited that beautiful smile so, when I see them all smile, I think of you every single time!!! I love you very much and I am sending you many many kisses and lots and lots of hugs!! Love, Kristie

“ I am still thinking about the ornament from you in Heaven! How wonderful! I know it was the best birthday party up there, and yes, you were spending Christmas with Jesus this year amidst all the celebration of His birth. We are in a New Year, can you believe 2010 - we all will be a year older this year, except you, who are now eternally young! Take care, my dear Mother - HAPPY NEW YEAR - I LOVE YOU . . . Until next time . . . By the way, Kristie is a pretty fine granddaughter also, isn't she - God indeed blessed me richly when she became my Bundle of Joy!

“ Good morning, Mother! Merry Christmas Eve, Eve to you! I just had to write and tell you about the special ornament Kristie gave me for Christmas! It is from you - telling us how much you love us and miss us, but you are spending your Christmas with Jesus this year! What an honor to be sitting on those streets of gold. The card says you can still hear the music and still see the lights and Kristie and I both know you can hear and see them better than before. The music is prettier and the lights are more lovely from your view while watching over us! You are in our hearts and we will miss having you with us this Christmas, as well as always! You are everywhere we are and that will never change. Merry Christmas from me, Kristie, Destin and Christian this December, 2009. All my love, Connie

“ Hey and Merry Christmas to you, my sweet grandma with the beautiful smile!! I just want you to know that we are missing you so much but, we LOVE you and we know that you are spending Christmas with Jesus this year so, that is why we are NOT sad! You made quite an impact on our lives and for that we are grateful. I think of you and your beautiful smile everyday! I hope that you are having the best Christmas ever. No, let me rephrase that, I know that you are having the best Christmas ever ! We all know that you are looking down on us and will be with us for Christmas and always. I still feel your sweet kisses on my cheek and I always will think of that beautiful smile always. Like I always say to you every night, Thank you for the past several years and keeping smiling on us!! WE LOVE YOU- G-MA!! Lots and Lots and LOTS of love from us straight to you in heaven...Love, Your oldest G-Kid and the boys!!

“ Dear Mother: Today's is Friday, the 13th - are you and your brothers and sisters playing jokes on anyone while you are looking over us? It has been over 2 months now since we laid you to rest - I am waiting for the memories to become more sweeter than sad - We are going to have Thanksgiving dinner with Ms. Orelia at the nursing home next Thursday - you will be there with us and we know there is no place you'd rather us be than with Ms. Orelia. She still misses you also. I went to see her the other night, and we talked about some funny stuff you would do. I am glad we have you as our Angel and we love you and miss you! Connie

“ Hey Grandma!! I was reading my Mom's message to you and I thought, you know what, she is right! You actually can know everything now that brings us joy can also REALLY bring you joy now, too. That is so wonderful to me. I still always think of you and please know that you will always be a big part of our lives. We will always keep your memory alive. That is a promise! You touched our lives in so many ways, wonderful ways and we thank you for that. Destin and Christian talked about you all of the time. I know that I will always miss your smile and like I said before, keep smiling down on us!! WE NEED IT!! I LOVE YOU, G-MA! Love your oldest g-kid, Kristie

“ Hi Mother - I wonder what you and Aunt Mae are up to? As for us, we are adjusting to life after saying good bye to you. I miss seeing you every afternoon,, but . . you know that, don't you? I went to see Ms. Orelia today, she misses you. I brought her a cross, the Memorial from your service, and a couple of pictures of you and her over the last few years. You were like 2 little girls and had a bond that will go on forever. I also brought her some fried chicken and wish you would have been here to enjoy it with her. You probably have eaten fried chicken up in Heaven every day. I am so happy you are whole again, know you are missed and loved down here on earth. All my love, Connie sue

“ Hey again Grandma, We are home and getting back into our routine of things. We are so glad that we got to go to Texas and also to see alot of our family that we haven't seen in so long. Your service was so beautiful. I know that you were looking down on us all and were so proud of us. You looked so beautiful and so peaceful. It has been an honor having you in my life and I am so glad that we were able to live close to each other and get so close over the last several years. I am going to miss your beautiful smile. Whenever I think of you, that is the first thing I think of IS that beautiful smile. We are so blessed and we thank you for the wonderful memories that we have with you. Keep smiling down on us! WE LOVE YOU!Love,Kristie

“ Good morning, Mother - I know you are in Heaven this morning looking down upon us. So much time went by when your mind let you down and you didn't know who we were, but you know us all now! What a blessing. We have gotten home from our trip to lay you to rest and you were honored in style by all your family. Our family circle is broken, but we all know it will be made whole again in God's time. You suffered your last week and I know you are walking and talking to everyone since you have been rejoined with all your family angels that have gone on before you. We will miss you and your sweet smile of acknowledgement as you would realize we belonged with you but you weren't sure just how. Enjoy your sweet rest, your happiness with all of your family and rest assured that you live on in our hearts. I LOVE YOU, MOTHER!
