“ Darlene, Shannon and Shayne: We were sad to hear of Wayne's passing. When we lived in Longview, your family was very gracious in inviting us out to your lake house and making us feel like a part of the family. Having been around Wayne for only a brief time, he always made us feel like we had been friends for years. A real gentleman. We will continue to keep your family in our prayers. God bless each of you.

“ Darleen, you know the first thing that popped into my mind every time I would see you and Wayne was that black 57 chevy he drove; I can see you'all driving off from THS . Fifty plus years of wonderful memories; we will be thinking of you and your family. Hope to see you in May.....Jack “Darlene, Shayne, Shannon and family, I was so sad to hear about the passing of Wayne. He always made me and everyone around him feel like family. Whether we were working or playing, everyone was welcome to join in and be a part of what ever he was doing. It seems like yesterday when we were up in Montana hunting and Wayne and Shannon had everyone laughing so hard that we were in tears with their stories. He was a great man and I pray that God grants you the strength and comfort that only He can.

“Darlene, Shannon, Shayne and your families, Saying, "I am sorry" does not express my sorrow for you today -- your loss is so much greater than any words can describe. I feel so honored to have known Wayne. I know you are going through indescribable pain, and although he isn't there, close enough to touch, please know that somehow he will be there...and you will feel his presence. He will be remembered for so many things, but most importantly as a man who followed the walk of Jesus, loved and took care of his family. With love and concern, Nell

“ DARLENE AND FAMILY, There are no words we can say right now - this is so unfair and unreal. In all of lifes walkways, we have never known a better person that Wayne Wright. He was a friend "that sticketh by you". Always concerned about the other person. Tommy will miss his "hog hunting buddy". Remember, in Revelation Chapter 21 it says: And he that sat upon the throne said "Behold I make all things new." Wayne is new again now and free from his suffering and pain. We love you all and take comfort in the fact that he was very much respected and loved among men TOMMY AND ROSE ANDERSON
