

Mr. Wes Arrington

February 13, 1980 - January 22, 2021

A celebration of the life of Wesley Scott Arrington, 40, of Henderson, will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, January 27, 2021, at First Baptist Church with Rev. Matt Gholson, Bro. Chris Moore, and Scott Arrington officiating. A private family burial will be held under the direction of Crawford-A. Crim Funeral Home.

The family will receive friends from 6-8 p.m. on Tuesday, January 26, at the funeral home. The family kindly requests that family and friends wear a mask or face covering when attending the visitation or celebration of life.

Anyone who knew Wes also knew how proud he was of being a husband to Brook and father to Laney and Lennon. They were the joys of his life. Wes also adored his family and all of his "just-like-family" friends. He always entered the room with a smile on his face and usually had everyone either smiling or laughing when he left. Wes lived by the First Commandment: "love thy neighbor," and he knew that was the best way to show the love of Christ to others. Wes' passion was music. He found solace in songwriting, recording, and performing. It was his absolute favorite thing to do. His band, Heathen City, helped him channel those passions into wonderful works of art. To say he will be missed is an understatement.

He was preceded in death by grandfather, Jack Arrington, grandparents, Offie and Bernice Nobles, PaPaw, Roland Adams, and Donald Fable Pope.

Survivors include: his wife of 18 years, Brook Boatwright Arrington of Henderson; father, Scott Arrington and wife Terry of Ft. Worth, and mother, Tammie Prater and husband Benny of Gilmer, grandparents, Kay and David Davidson of Gilmer, Marguerite Adams of Gilmer, and Patsy Pope of Gladewater; In-laws, Bon and Tami Boatwright of Henderson; daughters, Laney and Lennon Arrington of Henderson; siblings, Patrick Arrington of Cleveland, TN, Jaclynn Arrington of Vienna, VA, and Summer McDorman and husband Gaston of Georgetown; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and other family, and many, many friends whom he considered family, and the entire University of Texas Longhorn football team and their coaching staff; and Thom Yorke, Paul McCartney, and Ringo Starr.

Honorary pallbearers are Evan Dean, Drew Butler, Michael Marshall, John Green, Brandon Jones, Brandon Grubbs, Thomas Lansdale, Jay Tefteller, Brandon Allred, Adam Dugan, Trey Segura, Paul Morris, Matt Gholson, Cooper Young, Judson Knight, Jarrod Ferguson, Brett Biggs, Presley Miller, Patrick Arrington, Josh Poole, Josh Gray, Chad Boatwright, Chase Crockett, Blake Evans, Brandon Moffett, Billy Cody, and Nathan Gann.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Hiway 80 Rescue Mission at P.O. Box 3223, 3117 W. Marshall, Longview, TX 75604 or online at <http://hiway80rm.org/>.

Words of comfort may be shared with the family at www.crawfordacrim.com.

When everybody else thinks and dreams of starting a rock n roll band, Wes actually did. He did it while working nights at Austin Bank, and left the bank some years before I did. One of his cd albums made the cut of the rare few items of awesome music I chose to cart around the world to New Zealand. Even greater than his music though, was his Wes-way of always smiling and always being positive. He gave that positivity to all of us who knew and worked with him. I will always remember, and do my best to hand on that legacy. Thank you Wes Arrington.

“ I remember when Wes and Chris Williams were around ten or eleven years old. I had come home from grocery shopping and saw a fire at the corner across from where they lived. I saw Wes and Chris I said you boys okay. They said happily yes mam just roasting wieners in the summer for lunch!! Lol!! It's all good . I laughed , they had a great time being little boys.

“ Wes, I can certainly tell that I did not know you near long enough! Wow! The comments and stories sure make me wish I had known you much longer! It was such an honor to work with you at Citizens Bank! You were the Apple phone guy and the QuickBooks guy. And I laughed so hard when you commented on all the NOTES I had stuck to EVERYTHING when y'all were moving our computers around before and after the new floors went in. Your truly SWEET soul will certainly be missed here and I pray I can share your positive attitude with all I come in contact with. Continued prayers for your beautiful wife, girls, family and friends.

Thank you Wes,

My heart is so broken over this tremendous loss to so many people, most especially Brook, Laney and Lennon. To know Wes for sure is to know how much he loved all of you so much and beamed at the mention of all of you. I just cant say enough about how wonderful he was and how I hurt for you all. “ Wes was a year younger than me in school. But I also was able to meet his sweet Mom going to Indian Rock Baptist Church as a child and be in Sunday School with him. Wes and I also ended up in band together as we got older. He was always such a sweet guy, always had a smile on his face, and knew how to have fun. You all are in our prayers and he will be greatly missed 🙏

“ When moving into our home Wesley was our neighbor he was just a little boy. I remember coming home from the store one summer day and seeing a fire near some woods and saw him and our other neighbor boy Chris doing something . I called their name and said is everything okay they said yes mam just roasting some hot dogs for lunch . Those two always made me smile. Wes loved his little sister Summer so much she was ten years younger than him but he loved his baby sister and always looked after her. He grew into a fine young man with children of his own. He will be greatly missed.

“ I am still in complete shock that Wes is not longer here on this Earth but take comfort in knowing he is in God's arms and singing and playing in God's choir now. Working with Wes for 7 years were some of the greatest years I've had. Wes had a smile and laugh that was infectious to everyone around him. I am so thankful that we continued our friendship long after his years at Austin Bank. I will cherish the memories of him forever. My thoughts and prayers are with Brook, Laney, and Lennon...praying God comforts you and give you peace that passes all understand.
