

Mr. William "Bill" Webster

March 26, 1954 - May 23, 2026

Mr. William "Bill" Webster, 72, of Henderson, passed from this life on May 23, 2026. He was born on March 26, 1954, to the late Elwyn Morris and Frances (Strong) Webster and spent most all of his life in Henderson where he grew up attending Church Hill Methodist Church.

After graduating from Henderson High School, Bill enlisted in the United States Navy and served his country for four years. He would go on to work as an electrician for Texas Utilities. In his younger years he loved riding his Harley Davidson motorcycle and the hot rods he kept.

Survivors include his brother Danny Webster and wife Cathy of Henderson; sister Debbye Jarrell and husband Don Willis of Minden; nieces and their families Haley Smith and husband Chris, Melissa LeBlanc and husband Jake, Sally Thompson and husband Jake, and Christy Allison and husband Rusty; and cousin Kathy Strong and her companion Jerry Reynolds of Henderson.

Words of comfort may be shared with the family at www.crawfordacrim.com.

“ My name is Mary Jackson. Bill was at Autumn Leaves with my brother Michael Flanagan. I met him when I carried Mike out to smoke and he introduced him to me as his smoking friend. Ha! I enjoyed a few conversations with him a/nd found out he passed away the early am of the 23rd as did Mike. I thought how bittersweet it was that they both passed the same day. My thoughts will be with your family also.
