"The Boy named Bill"

I went to town with mother, and much to my surprise; the boy that I grew up with was standing by my side. Do you remember me; I asked this boy named Bill. Yes, surely I do, and I'd like to see you still. We went to church on Sunday, he held my hand that night; My heart was beating funny, as he asked for a kiss goodnight. We dated through the winter, spring and summer too; but the best year of all was, 1962. Our wedding was so lovely; we began to make a home. The children would be coming, our lives no longer our own. Our trials have been many, as down life's road we travel; but God was always there to pull us from the gravel. We laughed, we loved, we cried, and we kept up the pace; For it's not what life deals you, it's how you run the race. The years have passed so fast, and now the kids are grown. I'm so glad this boy named Bill, took me for his own.

“ Dear precious Bill. I could write a book about this wonderful man, husband , daddy, som and friend to so many. He loved his family so dearly. Even though his wife,Brenda and I are first cousins ... he became my brother . I' first met Bill when I was 10 yrs old ... they lived across they street from one another ... being a mischievous little boy .. he used to try to shoot us with his bebe gun ... never did ! Haha. But, he's been my brother for the past 60 years (the best ever) .

Brenda, Bill and I have always been very close as, Brenda is not just my cousin , she's my sister since we were born . when they married I gained a brother. We've had many beautiful memories over the years . Never ever had an argument because we loved and respected one another sooo much . Bill was a good good christian man and is deeply missed. And, those who know him well ... know fishing was his passion... So now he's up there fishing with Andrew & Peter in that beautiful River of Life. We all miss him terribly , but because we know Jesus and Heaven will be our home... we will all be together someday for all Eternity ... and that's what brings me Joy, Peace and Comfort & knowing no more tears ; no pain ... Jesus welcomed him with opened arms and said..."WELL DONE MY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SON" LOVE YOU SWEET ANGEL BILL.
