“ Steve has gone home with our heavenly Father. Steve passed surrounded by family and friends. Steve asked to have his final resting place on the beach in Gulfport, MS and at Greer's Ferry Lake. Steve's final wishes are being taken care of and a date for his resting place will be at a later date.

“ Steve lived a wonderful life and fought a long hard battle with kidney failure and enduring the never-ending struggle with dialysis. Steve lived his life the way he wanted and that included riding motorcycles and teaching motorcycle safety classes in Texas. Steve touched a lot of lives and if you knew Steve, he never met a stranger and was always one to share and tell stories. Steve and I shared some of our happiest times riding the back roads in West Texas and Eastern New Mexico. It was an honor to be with Steve until he went to his reborn life without pain and dialysis - God provides all we need after our time on this earth, and we are very lucky if we live the life we want and can share with others. Steve will be waiting on all of his family and friends in heaven, and he is back with our mother, father, and our Savior and creator. Ride easy Steve and we will catch up with you soon. I asked Steve in his final days to save me a spot and see if he can find a good fishing spot. We all must be prepared every day, our Lord did not guarantee any of us another day. Be kind, smile, and love your family and friends.

“ Steve's last wish was to be at the lake we spent many summers at in Arkansas, and I will take him there in the near future. We will make one more road trip together and he would be smiling and happy.
