“ Many good memories of Henry and Mattie Jones and their family at Sardis. Bill will be missed by many. He always had a joke to tell on Wednesday night at church. He always asked about my grandmother and reminded me that she taught him Sunday school. Prayers for the family!

“ I love to hear stories about “Pappaw” from my dear friend, Alex....we share so much in common. My “Daddaw” was a fisherman too and loved Jesus with all his heart! They’re in Heaven now....

“ Brother Bill was a wonderful witty person. I will always cherish the times he and I shared while enjoying coffee and catching up on the weeks happenings on Sunday mornings prior to Sunday School. He was a very humble man and full of wisdom. I have been very blessed by knowing Bill. Not only will he be missed by me, but also anyone who ever knew him. Rest in peace my friend.
